

Piano Academy at Fort Lewis College 2026

Monday–Wednesday, July 20–22 • 9:00a.m.–1:00p.m. • Ages 10–18

Faculty: Dr. Lisa Campi Walters, Mika Inouye, and Sarah Inouye Mano	Tuition: $300 Registration Deadline: June 10
Location: Jones Hall, 1000 Rim Drive, Fort Lewis College	Questions? mikainouye@gmail.com 4CMTA.com

SUMMER 2026

Piano Academy provides an exceptional opportunity for intermediate and advanced piano students to study piano duet and ensemble literature, piano technique, composition, and performance in a creative and supportive environment. Students will perform in a recital for family and friends in Roshong Hall on the final day.

FACULTY

Mika Inouye

Mika Inouye is active as a solo and collaborative pianist in the Four Corners region and performs regularly with Inouye Six Hands. A nationally certified teacher of music, Mika runs a large independent piano studio and is president of the Four Corners Music Teachers Association (MTNA). She has bachelor's and master's degrees in piano performance.

Dr. Lisa Campi Walters

Dr. Lisa Campi Walters has performed as a soloist and chamber musician throughout North America. Currently serving as a collaborator and teacher of award-winning students in Orlando, Florida, she was Professor of Piano at Fort Lewis College and performed with the Red Shoe Trio and the San Juan Symphony.

Sarah Inouye Mano

Sarah Inouye Mano has bachelor's and master's degrees in piano performance and is a nationally certified piano teacher through MTNA. She has taught private piano lessons for over 20 years and performs with Inouye Six Hands while organizing music festivals, adjudicating competitions, and presenting workshops.

Registration deadline: June 10 | Tuition: $300 payable by check to 4CMTA